DECISION ON THE REMUNERATION OF INTERNSHIPS

In accordance with Section 34 of the Ordinance on the Integrated Study program in Veterinary Medicine, students in the 2024/2025 academic year have the right to make up to two missed internships per semester free of charge as part of the regular examination preparation obligation. In the winter semester, these must be made up from January 20, 2025 to January 23, 2025 at the latest and in the summer semester from June 2, 2025 to June 4, 2025 at the latest.

According to Article 35 of the Regulation on Integrated Studies in Veterinary Medicine, if more than two internships are missed by these dates, two internships are free of charge, while the difference in missed internships must be paid by the student in the amount of 100 euro in dinars on the day of the payment per subject as compensation for missed internships.

After January 23, 2025 and June 5, 2025, students must pay 100 euro in dinars on the day of the payment for each subject to the faculty account regardless of the number of missed internships.

Students must collect the Internship Compensation Form from Student Services for studies in English language, and then obtain the subject professor's approval to make up for the missed internships. The form signed by the professor and the original payment receipt must be submitted to Student Services. After approval by the Vice Dean for Teaching, the student can continue with the internships.
